MEETING OF THE CABINET.

Subject of Reduction of the Revenues is Discussed.

Washington, April 3.-At the cabinet meeting today the subject of a reduction in the revenues by congress was discussed. It is understood the admin-istration is in favor of a revision of the war revenue act, so as to cut down the receipts, but in view of the fact that to make any move in that direction probably would prolong the present session of congress for many weeks, if not months, it is thought by representative Penublicans that on this line would be advisable at this session.

The resignation of assistant Secretary of the Interior Webster Davis was discussed and it is understood the president will secretary dent will accept the same through the secretary of the interior.

The selling of the stock was due to the practical admission of the failure to amend the charter at the annual meeting yesterday which was equivalent to the abandonment of further dividend distributions this year, owing to legal obstacles. The strength in Baltimore & Ohio developed after the executive committee had convened. It was generally understood that this meeting would consider the granting of additional rights to stockholders. A new rumor found circulation about every five minutes as to what the right would be, and the speculation in the stocks of the company was very active. PARTISAN BIAS.

Some Complaints Made Against Republican Officials.

Edward Toone of North Ogden yesterday nied stances of partisan bias resulting in illegal Republican votes being cast. Two samples of the work were as follows: Mrs. Phoébe Rex was registered in North Ogden in 1896, but moved to Wilson and voted there in 1898. The lady came in with John W. Gibson, and authorizing the sale of said of the soid upon the notice as to for the vote in North Ogden, but conceded her right to vote in North Ogden, but conceded her right to vote in Wilson. Mr. Gibson objected to Mr. Toone's right to challenge the vote on account of his beling registration agent. There being no one else to challenge the vote it was allowed.

Mrs. Sarah Box, registered in North Ogden in 1896, but who had since resided in Park City to be soid upon the notice and in the manner prayed for in said petition. And also the account of said minor, the will be to vote in North Ogden, but conceded her right to vote in Wilson. Mr. Gibson objected to Mr. Toone's right to challenge the vote on account of his beling registration agent. There being no one else to challenge the vote it was allowed.

Mrs. Sarah Box, registered in North Ogden in 1896, but who had since resided in Preston, Cache county, was, so Mr. Toone was informed, allowed to vote in North Ogden. These were merely samples of the work.
